

Galleria

- More exotic stones with unique finishes, some of which are exclusive
- Exceptional stone products that are usually individual, rare or historical and may be custom sourced

A CUT ABOVE THE REST

Galleria: part stone design center, part stone library and part stone laboratory – has been designed to provide design inspiration and information about stone in a distinctive and creative environment.

Galleria is a unique destination for stone knowledge & inspiration. Galleria (embracing the history, beauty and allure of stone), has been designed from the ground up to anticipate the needs of various audiences who work with stone: architects, interior designers, homeowners, masons, landscapers and builders. Each customer will encounter a unique experience based on his or her own background, objectives and particular tastes and preferences.
